

SWEET SUCCESS

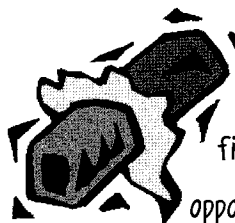

(Tell your Premier Designs Story with candy)

I want to share a real sweet story with you. But to do it I need your help. When I hold something up from my basket, I want you to tell me what it is. (I pull out the M&M's and they say "M&M's"). Well, I used to think this stood for M & M's, but I found out it really stands for "More Money." And that is exactly where my husband and I were five years ago...In Need Of "More Money!" When we looked at our checkbook, it's for sure we didn't see 100 GRAND. What we saw looked more like ZERO. There was definitely no EXTRA money. Then one day my husband heard about a company called Premier Designs—they sell high fashion jewelry . We decided to check it out and found that any time I held a Home Show it would be a PAYDAY. That really got me thinking. But I confess, I couldn't help but SNICKER at the idea since I had never done anything like it before. In fact, when it came to fashion and jewelry, I felt more like a NERD. But Premier Designs taught me everything I needed to know. And besides helping us get out of a major financial CRUNCH, Premier Designs has been a LIFESAVER because it fulfills needs in our lives that go far beyond finances. I believe that Premier Designs is one of the greatest business opportunities in America today, BAR NONE. So, if you, or someone you know, is interested in hearing about Premier Designs, I would love to share it with you. And I promise there will be absolutely no pressure or obligation. After all, when you are as excited about something as I am about Premier Designs, you want to share it with everyone. So, please don't pass up the chance to hear about the Premier Designs Opportunity, because if you don't do it

NOW (cover up LATER), you may wish you had done it LATER! (cover up NOW).
